

A patient's health insurance/payer may deny a patient request for coverage for treatment with NUCALA® (mepolizumab). The decision can be appealed by a provider on behalf of the patient. When submitting an appeal to a patient's health insurance plan/payer, the provider can help explain the rationale and clinical decision-making behind the choice of a specific therapy.

The following is a template letter of appeal for NUCALA that can be customized based on your patient's medical history and demographic information.

Diagnosis: [Code & Description]

Dear [Insert payer contact name and/or department]:

I am writing to request that you reconsider your denial of coverage for NUCALA® (mepolizumab), which I have prescribed for my patient, [Patient Name/policy number].

[Patient Name] has been under my treatment for diagnosis of [diagnosis information] since [date]. [Patient Name] has tried [previous therapies] and [outcomes]. Due to the patient's clinical condition, the plan of treatment was to start the patient on NUCALA on [date]. The attached medical records document [Patient Name]'s clinical condition and medical necessity for treatment with NUCALA.

NUCALA is indicated for the:

- add-on maintenance treatment of adult and pediatric patients aged 6 years and older with severe asthma and with an eosinophilic phenotype. NUCALA is not indicated for the relief of acute bronchospasm or status asthmaticus.
- add-on maintenance treatment of chronic rhinosinusitis with nasal polyps (CRSwNP) in adult patients 18 years of age and older with inadequate response to nasal corticosteroids.
- treatment of adult patients with eosinophilic granulomatosis with polyangiitis (EGPA).
- treatment of adult and pediatric patients aged 12 years and older with hypereosinophilic syndrome (HES) for ≥6 months without an identifiable non-hematologic secondary cause

In summary, I am requesting [an appeal/redetermination/reconsideration] of the denial of NUCALA® (mepolizumab) for [patient name]. I believe NUCALA® (mepolizumab) is appropriate and medically necessary for this patient and would appreciate your reconsideration. If you have any further questions about this matter, please contact me at [physician phone number] or via email at [physician email].

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Physician's Name], [Degree Initials] [Physician's practice name]
